About The Thurston Players

In the Beginning

In the spring of 1974, John and Nancy Keller suggested to the Thurston PTO that it sponsor a musical comedy featuring Thurston Elementary School parents and teachers. The Kellers agreed to produce and direct the production, and that summer the original script and musical scores were written, the dances were choreographed, and the sets were designed. The Kellers' enthusiasm caught on, and others joined the project. In March 1975, "The Great Cat-B" played to capacity crowds at Clague Middle School Auditorium.

Elated by this first success, the PTO agreed to continue sponsorship of this project in 1976 and 1977. As this annual production became a tradition, those involved decided to organize and become the Thurston Community Players.

Current Times

The Thurston Play became an annual fundraiser, and over time, other adults, including Thurston neighbors who did not have children at the school, joined the fun. In 1997, Thurston students were included in the cast. As those children grew up, middle school, high school, and even college students began participating in the plays, making this a truly multi-generational group. A typical cast for a show runs to well over 100 actors ranging in age from 5 to past 75; many more people work backstage and in other production areas.

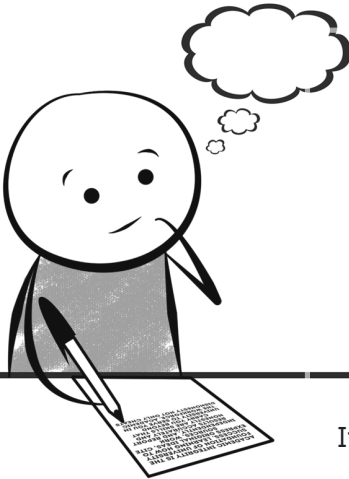

Each year a group of volunteers first concocts the plot for a play and then writes the original script. The Lyrics Committee selects songs and writes lyrics, and the choreographers create dance numbers. Auditions are low stress; everyone who auditions gets a part as long as they are willing to work hard, be team players, and have fun. Traditionally from January to March we rehearse in the Clague Middle School Auditorium three nights a week, and performances are typically held the last weekend in March. This year is our second year back after a three-year hiatus due to the pandemic, and we were no able to access the Clague Auditorium until February. We are grateful to have been able to use Thurston and then Clague to practice and Huron for our performances.

About The Thurston Players

Why We Do It

Our objective initially was to provide a fun social opportunity for Thurston parents and teachers to get to know each other. The results have been both in the form of tangible support for the PTO with additional funds, as well as many more intangible benefits. These plays have brought the community together and has formed bonds of friendship and cooperation with those in our community. It is an annual tradition that cannot be missed.

No experience necessary!

Collaborate with neighbors and friends!

Think this play is fantastic and want to be a part of writing next year's play?

Come join us this summer as we brainstorm next year's play.

Directors' Note

I believe this season's show can be summed up with one word. Transition. You'll follow our characters through several years as the town of Ann Arbor grows and prospers to the amazing "bubble" it is today (events embellished for dramatic purposes).

I can't help but notice how fitting the theme is to our Thurston Community Players as well. As with everything else in the world, Covid brought this long-standing program to a grinding halt in 2020. Last year, upon our return, we had an amazing opportunity, as well as a challenge in front of us.

Our veterans came back because they knew how important this time-honored tradition is to everyone involved. It was also time to get some new blood in the mix (hint hint - register for next year!). This is where the magic started to happen. With patience, understanding, and a bit of hand holding, the next generation of Thurston families are working hard to live up to expectations and bring it back to its full glory.

Kevin and I are excited to be making our directorial debut. Kevin's family has been involved for six years, and for my family, this is our second year. We are looking forward to continuing next year and making this community's tradition one of ours as well.

We are so excited to see all the hard work and sacrifice (of bedtimes) pay off. Please enjoy the show!

Kevin Cox and Katie Gilkey, Co-Directors

Song A: “Happy” (Act I, Scene 1)

In the style of Pharrell Williams

Can you believe our life’s so wonderful
Hanging on rocks we’re cute ‘n colorful
Here in the shade, where we prefer
Cuz you know, from head to toe we’re salamanders

Because we’re happy!
Clap along if you like to splash in Loch Thurston!
Because we’re happy!
Clap along if you like to eat bugs just for fun!
Because we’re happy!
Clap along if you love it here in Michigan
Because we’re happy!
Clap along to all of my fellow amphibians

There’s no bad news here, life’s just great
If we lose a limb, we just regenerate
Life’s a red-letter day, all month and year
Slimy, cool, and chill, let’s give a cheer

(here’s why)
Because we’re happy!
Clap along if you like to splash in Loch Thurston!
Because we’re happy!
Clap along if you like to eat bugs just for fun!
Because we’re happy!
Clap along if you love it here in Michigan
Because we’re happy!
Clap along to all of my fellow amphibians

Song B: “Takin’ Care of A-Square” (Act I, Scene 3)

In the style of BTO, “Takin’ Care of Business”

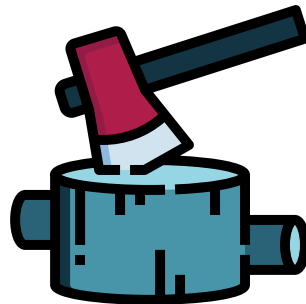

Well, it's really such a thrill
To be a lumberjack or jill
It's the best living you could ever find
And we're never discontented
That the chainsaw ain't invented
Cuz we've always got an axe to grind

And when the trappers start to trappin'
And the snares start to snappin'
You never know just what you'll find there
Could be a beaver or a skunk
Or someone's old discarded junk
Sometimes we only catch Pierre

And we'll be takin' care of A Square
Every day
Takin' care of A Square
Every way
Takin' care of A Square
Got the goods
Takin' Care of A Square
We're tearin' up the woods
Timber!!

Gotta be a quick clicker
When you click for Nitpicker
You really gotta be a go-getter
It can sometimes be a grind
But we really don't mind
Because we're getting paid by the letter

And we'll be takin' care of A Square
Every day
Takin' care of A Square
Every way
Takin' care of A Square
Got the goods
Takin' Care of A Square
We're tearin' up the woods
Timber!!

Song C: “Michigan Capital City (the Coffee House Song)” (Act I, Scene 5)

In the style of “Everything’s Coming Up Roses” from Gypsy

We’ll be swell! We’ll be great!
Gonna be number one in the state!
County seat? Move aside!
For the Michigan capital city!

Stunning lakes! Railroad tracks!
You got nothin’ to do but relax!
Take a risk! Take a chance!
On the Michigan capital city!

We’ll be grinning,
With a capital G!
Take your winnings!
That’ll be just the beginning!

Make a deal! Take a loan!
How our own little hometown
has grown!

Shake your hand! You shake
mine!
Sign right here, on the line!
This land will be the one to wear
the crown!
It’s the Michigan capital city for
Ann Arbor town!

We’ll be grinning,
With a capital G!
Take our winnings!
That’ll be just the beginning!

Make a deal! Take a loan!
How our dear little hometown
has grown!

Shake your hand! You shake
mine!

Sign right here, on the line!
This land will be the one to wear
the crown!
It’s the Michigan capital city for
Ann Arbor town!

REPRISE:

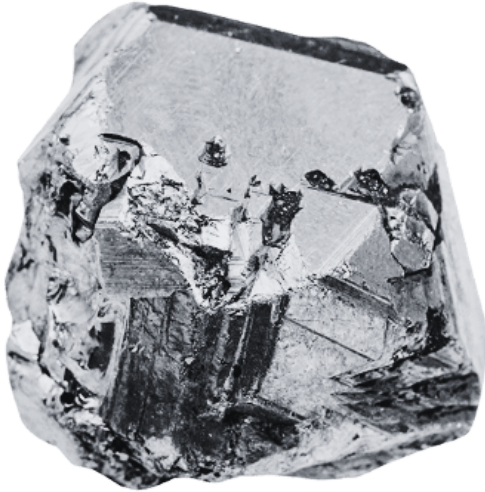

Leave your shame on the shelf!
They got no one to blame but themselves!

We’ll be rich! Sittin’ cute!
Dig that gold! What a hoot!

We’ll see you when your interest is due!

It’s a gold rush in Ann Arbor city
for me and for you!

Song D: “Just You Wait (Scary Crow Song)”

(Act II, Scene 2)

In the style of My Fair Lady

Just you wait, scaredy miners, just you wait!
You’ll be sorry, but your tears’ll be too late!
You’ll be frightened like a bunny;
It’s so scary that it’s funny!
Just you wait, scaredy miners, just you wait!

Just you wait, scaredy miners, with your picks,
Digging dirt and cracking rocks, it makes us sick!
You’ll run off, and we’ll do a dance,
You’re so scared, that you’ll wet your pants!
Oh, ho ho, scaredy miners, just you wait.

Amelia

You bring us a-lotyl smiles, and waves of joy every day. Hope that you have a fin-tastic show as Hermione the salamander. Break a leg!

We love you,
Dad, Mom, Aspen, & Oliver

Song E: “Flowers” (Act II, Scene 3)

In the style of Miley Cyrus

We were good
We were gold
Thought our future was foretold

One more trick
Up our sleeve
It is one you won't believe

Blew it all
Wealth and fame
On a single cornhole game.

Time to call
Our friend newt
It is time to get the loot

We wanted you to leave!
We wanted you to flee!
Started to cry, but then remembered we...

We're the best city we decree
Top place we guarantee
Thought you beat us but then remembered we...

We still live in Ann Arbor
This is our kind of town
They might be strong but we're smarter
Soon they won't be hanging around

We still live in Ann Arbor
This is our kind of town
They might be strong but we're
smarter
Soon they won't be hanging around

We'll get rid of them miners
Make our home so renowned
Yeah we can be the best town in
Michigan

We'll get rid of them miners
Make our home so renowned
Yeah we can be the best town in
Can be the best town in Michigan

be the best town. Can be the best town, yeah can be the best town)

Song F: “Raining Gold” (Act II, Scene 3)

In the style of The Weather Girls, “It’s Raining Men”

They say all that glitters isn't gold, but that's not the forecast here in Ann Arbor!

Mercury's in retrograde,
We were feeling low.
According to Jed's sources,
The loch's the place to go.
Thanks to Newt's special potion
We've got a plan that's bold.
It's no tall tale for us to say
It's gonna start raining gold!

It's raining gold! Hallelujah!
It's raining gold! Behold!
Thanks to alchemy
these rocks will be
One hundred percent shiny.
It's raining gold! Hallelujah!
It's raining gold,
riches so untold!
Dust, bars, nuggets too,
Think of what
this wealth can do.

By working together
We'll outsmart our common foe.
Those greedy prospectors
Must find another place to go.
We all love our hometown,
And there's so much at stake,
It's a golden opportunity
To save our greatest lake.

It's raining gold! Hallelujah!
It's raining gold! Behold!
Thanks to alchemy
these rocks will be
One hundred percent shiny.
It's raining gold! Hallelujah!
It's raining gold,
riches so untold!
Dust, bars, nuggets too,
Think of what
this wealth can do.

It's raining gold, behold!

Song G: “Maize and Blue” (Act II, Scene 4)

In the style of Dolly Parton, “9 to 5”

Prospectors out of town on a new mission,
Lookin’ for gold was their ambition.
Diggin’, blastin’ only got them pyrite.

Train in the station, whistle is blowin’
Out on the streets everything’s golden,
For folks like us glad to be Ann Arborites.

We’re now maize and blue,
What a welcome new addition
University life, Hail to the victors.

We can use our minds
And earn some college credit
It’s enough to drive you
Crazy if you let it.

Now our debts are paid
No fear of destitution.
Newt provided us
An alchemic resolution.

Want to move ahead
Now we got a little money
I swear sometimes
We feel so gosh darn lucky.

We had a dream to make our town grander
Got some help from a golden Salamander.

Now we have dreams you can never take away.

Out on the street with a lot of new friends
Waitin’ for the day your train will roll in.
Now the tide has turned and it’s gonna roll our way

We’re now maize and blue,
What a welcome new addition
University life, Hail to the victors.

We now have a place
To earn our college credit
It’s enough to drive you
Crazy if you let it.

Now our debts are paid
No fear of destitution.
Newt provided us
An alchemic resolution.

Want to move ahead
Now we got a little money
I swear sometimes
We feel so gosh darn lucky.

Tell MDOT Not to Play with Our Air Quality!

The Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) is proposing to widen US-23 through the Thurston neighborhood.

Expanding freeway capacity will worsen air and noise pollution, increase carbon emissions, and further an auto-centric development pattern in our community, which runs counter to our local and state climate goals. Plus it's proven that new lanes do not “fix” congestion — people just drive more and land uses sprawl.

A local group has formed to ask MDOT to consider a transit alternative. Our demand is simple: build Trains Not Lanes!

INNO

EDUCATION

Summer camp opportunity for incoming 6th - 8th graders!

Inno Education is excited to host our 8th annual two-week summer program in July designed to help local middle school students pursue intellectual interests and grow as individuals. The Inno Institute offers students the chance to participate in a variety of interdisciplinary academic courses developed to provoke thoughtfulness and collaboration. Our campers learn to approach problems as challenges and face "mistakes" as learning opportunities.
